2. SLAVONIC RHAPSODY No. 2 ... Friedemann
3. SONG ... "Chanson de Florian" ... Godard

Miss Catherine L. Ramsden.

Oh, If you go to yonder village,
You'll meet a handsome shepherd boy,
He is beloved by many maidens,
He's to one her only joy.
I have his heart, my faith has he,
I have his love, and he loves me.

If you should hear a plaintive ditty
That makes the hills and groves rejoice,
You'll know my love is ling'ring near thee.
Own him by his gentle voice
I know his song, of love will be,
I have his love, and he loves me.

Fear not to speak unto my shepherd,
Not vainly charity implore,
His tender heart at once relieves them,
Gives them from his frugal store,
So kind to all, so good is he,
I have his love, and he loves me.

- (a) O for the wings, for the wings of a dove!
Far away, far away would I rove!
O for the wings, for the wings of a dove!
Far away, far away, far away, far away would I rove!
In the wilderness build me a nest,
And remain there for ever at rest,
In the wilderness build me, build me a nest,
And remain there for ever at rest,
In the wilderness build me a nest,
And remain there for ever at rest,
And remain there for ever at rest,
And remain there for ever at rest.

- (b) Star of me, star of me,
Watching the mother skies, watching the mother skies,
Where thine elder sisters be, where thine elder sisters be;
Would I were heaven,
With all its eyes on thee!
