Little white star on the mountain heather,
Little red window, warm and bright,
Far away in the stormy weather
Donald is thinking of you to-night.
Sweet, sweet, night or day,
There is never a sea can bar my way.
Night or day, night or day,
There is never a sea can bar my way.

Little white hands from the window waving,
Dear brown eyes so bright and gay;
All is done, the sorrow and craving,
Donald is coming to you to-day.
Ah, love! dear o' my heart,
There is never an hour our souls shall part;
Dear o' my heart, dear o' my heart.
There is never an hour our souls shall part.
