LOVE will like a wild birdling fly,
 Careering whither he may choose,
 Vainly to him for help we cry,
 If 'tis his fancy to refuse.
 He cares little for pray'r or threat;
 One speaks, the other mute may be;
 'Tis this other I choose, and yet
 I know not why he pleases me.
 O Love!

When Love unfurls his wings above thee
 For wondrous magic then prepare;
 Thou lov'st me not, yet I may love thee,
 And if I love thee, then beware.

When we think that the bird is caught,
 He takes his flight, nor heeds our tears;
 Always absent when he is sought,
 Expect him not, and he appears.
 Hov'ring round us, by night and day,
 He comes, then goes, returns at last;
 Try to seize him—he flies away;
 Avoid him—he will hold thee fast.
 O Love!

SET my hands upon the plough,
 My feet upon the sod,
 Turn my face towards the east,
 And praise be to God!

Every year the rains do fall,
 The seeds they stir and spring;
 Every year the spreading trees
 Shelter birds that sing.

From the shelter of your heart,
 Brother, drive out sin;
 Let the little birds of faith
 Come and nest therein.

God has made His sun
 On both you and me;
 God who took away my eyes,
 That my soul might see.
