

PERFECT SILENCE IS REQUESTED, AND THE COMMITTEE RESPECTFULLY SOLICIT THE AUDIENCE TO MAINTAIN SAME.

Thirty-sixth Season.

Gorton Philharmonic Society.

(Established 1854.)

BELLE VUE GARDENS

(BY KIND PERMISSION),

October 7th, 1923, at Eleven a.m.

To assist the progress of the Society, Ladies and Gentlemen are cordially invited to become Honorary Members. All particulars may be obtained from present Members, or the Secretary.

Annual Subscription, 4s.

May be paid to any Member of the Committee, or to Mr. J. D. Hardman, Secretary, at the table.

Gorton Male Choir.

Conductor - - - - Mr. JOHN CORLETT, B.Sc.

Accompanist - - - - Mr. ARTHUR PRICE.

- |               |       |                             |     |        |            |
|---------------|-------|-----------------------------|-----|--------|------------|
| 1. OVERTURE   | ...   | "Semiramide"                | ... | ...    | ROSSINI    |
| 2. INVITATION | ...   | "A la Gavotte"              | ... | ...    | WALDTEUFEL |
| 3. GLEES      | { (a) | "Sea Fever"...              | ... | ...    | JENKINS    |
|               | (b)   | "The Assyrian came down"    | ... | ...    |            |
| 4. SELECTION  | ...   | "Carmen"                    | ... | ...    | BIZET      |
| 5. GLEES      | { (a) | "Stars of the Summer Night" | ... | MILLER | HATTON     |
|               | (b)   | "The Sailor's Song"...      | ... | ...    |            |

The SEATS are intended for ELDERLY PERSONS and LADIES.

- |                                  |       |                                     |           |                            |
|----------------------------------|-------|-------------------------------------|-----------|----------------------------|
| 6. MARCH                         | ...   | "The Die Hards"                     | ...       | DICK HARDWICK              |
|                                  |       | (Dedicated to Mr. Tom E. Moyes).    |           | Conducted by the Composer. |
| 7. OVERTURE...                   | ...   | "The Wandrer's Goal"                | ...       | SUPPE                      |
|                                  |       | (Conducted by Mr. Dick Hardwick).   |           |                            |
| 8. GLEES                         | { (a) | "Through Eastern Gates"...          | ...       | BANTOCK                    |
|                                  | (b)   | "Britain, Ask of Thyself!"          | ...       | ELGAR                      |
|                                  |       | (Chorus from the Coronation Ode).   |           |                            |
| 9. SELECTION                     | ...   | "Grand Duke"                        | ...       | SULLIVAN                   |
| 10. CHORUS                       | ...   | "Here's to Admiral Death"           | ...       | THOMAS                     |
| 11. OVERTURE                     | ...   | "Fingal's Cave"                     | ...       | MENDELSSOHN                |
| 12. COMBINED CHOIR AND ORCHESTRA |       | "Soldiers' Chorus" ( Faust ) | By desire | GOUNOD                     |

Conductor: Mr. J. F. RIDGWAY.

The ANNUAL CONCERT

will take place at Belle Vue Gardens, on Tuesday, October 23rd, 1923. This Concert is usually given for the benefit of the Society, but on this occasion the nett proceeds will be given to the

ANCOATS HOSPITAL.

TICKETS: Reserved Seats, 2/-; Second Seats, 1/3; Promenade, 8d. (including Tax). ALL PAY.

May be obtained from the Secretary, at the table, or any member of the Committee.

Piano supplied by ALBERT WAGSTAFF, St. Mary's Gate, and Ashton Old Road, Manchester.

